

ABOUT COFFEY MINING

The mining industry faces increasing challenges to viably and responsibly extract resources.

Coffey Mining provides a wide range of technical services and products to the minerals industry, from target generation to mine closure.

With operational experience in over 70 countries, we provide 'turn-key' consulting and operational support and optimisation services, due diligences, a range of technical audits, and independent reports.

Our products range from specialist spatial data management solutions through to geotechnical instrumentation and monitoring systems.
